4. Public Session:

Two members of the public were present. One expressing concerns that the proposed build would be over imposing and too close to the boundary of their property. A letter listing all concerns was read to the meeting. It was decided between the two that the applicant would consider alterations to elements and address the concerns of the neighbour.

5. 2017/0859/FUL Demolish garage and rebuild single storey extension to bungalow at Rose Cottage, New Road

Since an arrangement had been reached between the two people involved, the meeting were happy for them to come to an amicable agreement and would be happy to hear the application again.

Plans will be available for the public at the meeting
