No objections provided the work is monitored by RCC with strict supervision and a request for TPO's on both trees to protect them for the future.

10. Other matters future meetings

The Clerks attention was drawn to the continuing issue of dog fouling particularly on Lambley Lodge Lane.

Robert Baxter's attention should be drawn to potholes, some of them quite dangerous, in the village and the Clerk was requested to check when the next grass cutting will take place and to ensure the weeds are dealt with.

It was noted that residents on Littleworth Lane are dealing with lost emergency vehicles whose destination is the Belton House Estate. Clerk to write to request them advise their residents to give clear instructions to avoid both delays and disruption.

The meeting closed at 8.20 pm
